

FAQ's for Special Cards

Q: Do I pay 2 if there are two wound tracks on the card, even if I only buy one model?

A: No, you pay per model on the Profile Card the Enhancement is attached to.

Q: Could I buy a mask for just one model even if I have two, i.e. one with and one without mask?

A: No, you must buy the Enhancement for all models on the card at the start of the game.

Q: What about models appearing in play? If I have a Kairai Militia card with the Masks - does a newly risen model get a mask?

A: Yes, models adding to a Profile with an Enhancement gain the benefits.

Q: Could I buy Masks for a profile card I have no models in play from at the beginning of the game?

A: No, Enhancement cards must be attached to cards with models in a players starting list.

Q: If a theme grants a free model can this be changed from game to game in a tournament?

A: No, the model is still recruited as normal and must be included on your warband sheet.

Q: How do the Clan Armour cards interact with Critical Strike attack?

A: The Armour enhancements tell you to ignore the damage roll so no critical strike happens.
